

Changing the rules of broadcast ownership is a mistake. I urge you to delay a decision on the rule change and take a closer look at the ramifications of this change. It is not in the best interest to a free and fair democracy. Democracy protects ALL voices, and if the broadcast media is limited to a few owners a very important piece of our freedom will be lost. We will be beholden even more to those who hold the most power and money.